

LILLIAN E. SMITH WRITER-IN-SERVICE AWARD

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Lillian E. Smith Foundation is now accepting submissions for the second annual Writer-in-Service Award, which includes a two-week residency, a $500 honorarium, and a $300 travel allowance. The Award is open to U.S residents working to advance the writing through public service careers or volunteer work. Eligible activities include, but are not limited to, arts education, literacy instruction, prison arts and education, English as a second language instruction, art-related therapies, etc. While the work of writing instructors and volunteers is vital to the community, the demands often limit personal writing time. This award provides an opportunity for those writers who like Lillian E. Smith recognize "the power of the arts to transform the lives of all human beings."

Applicant must return the attached application to the following address:
